Medical Marijuana Use Registry Identification Card
Required Documentation

By Florida law, Registry Identification Card applications require specific information and documentation to prove Florida residence. Review the requirements below to be sure you have the correct documentation before you begin the application process.

Adult Applicants: (Patients and Caregivers)

- A valid Florida driver's license or identification card.
    - If you are applying online, make sure to have a JPEG or PDF copy of your valid Florida driver's license or ID. You will upload this to your application.

Seasonal Residents:

- If a seasonal applicant does not possess a valid Florida identification card or driver's license, they must submit a JPEG or PDF copy of two of the following documents:
    - A deed, mortgage, monthly mortgage statement, mortgage payment booklet or residential rental or lease agreement.
    - One proof of residential address from the seasonal resident's parent, step-parent, legal guardian or other person with whom the seasonal resident resides and a statement from the person with whom the seasonal resident resides stating that the seasonal resident does reside with him or her.
    - A utility hookup or work order dated within 60 days before registration in the medical use registry.
    - A utility bill, not more than 2 months old.
    - Mail from a financial institution, including checking, savings, or investment account statements, not more than 2 months old.
    - Mail from a federal, state, county, or municipal government agency, not more than 2 months old.

Minor Patients:

- A certified copy of a birth certificate or a current record of registration from a Florida K-12 school, and
- A copy of the minor patient's parent or legal guardian's valid Florida driver's license or identification card.

For all forms of residency, the name and address on the document(s) provided must match the name and address provided in the application.
